1. What would you rate this story out of 5 stars and why? I would rate 3 and a half stars because it's not really a book i like but it was exciting

I would rate this story a $\frac{4}{5}$ because most of the time, I really like reading or watching things related to detectives.

Desmond: I will rate 5stars because it was fine

Alex: I would rate it 3.9 stars because I like adventure books but this didn't have such an interesting storyline then I would like.

Nicole D: I would rate it 3.9 stars as well because it didn't have the best storyline but it was quite interesting.

Chelsie: I would rate it 3.5 stars because I like books where it involves murder and detectives because it was interesting. But I would like it more if they included more exciting scenes.

Nicole A: I would rate it 3 and a half stars because I like mystery genres and this book was a bit exciting so I don't really hate it but I don't really like that it was a bit too easy to find all the clues.

Tanya: I would rate the book a $\frac{5}{5}$ because it really helps me imagine what's going on and it gives a clear description of what's happenin.

Oscar T: I'd rate it $4 \frac{1}{2}$ stars because it's kind of a mystery book and I like those kind of books because they can get really interesting.

2. Do you feel sorry for John Turner? Explain your reasons.

I feel sorry for him John because first, his wife died young then he came in very ill, and when he dies someone will take his property.

Desmond: I feel sorry because his wife died and he was alone

Nicole D: I feel sorry because when his wife died he felt sad and then he became sick and had enough of being let down.

Alex: I feel sorry because his wife died and he may have thought that somebody else deserved to die. That is really wrong but I guess he felt that.

Liepa: i think i would rate this a $\frac{4}{5}$ because its about murder and sometimes i dont understand what is going on but overal its a really good book and i would recommened.

Chelsie: I feel sorry for him because his wife died and usually when someone close to you dies, you feel alone and feel like you are not really capable of doing anything without them.

Nicole A: I feel sorry for him because his wife died and that if he gets arrested his daughter will be left alone without any parents.

Tanya: I feel sorry for him because losing a loved one is very hard and keeping secrets too.

Oscar T: Yes because he lost a precious member of his family.

3. Do you feel sorry for Chris McCarthy? Explain your reasons.

I don't feel sorry for mccarthy because he killed his father and he is a bad man

Alex: I feel sorry because he killed his dad and if somebody kills their dad why would you feel sorry for them.

Liepa: i don't feel sorry because he killed his own father and its his fault but i dont really know because we dont know the actual killer.

Desmond: No because his a bad man and then he goes killed his own father

Nicole D: I don't feel sorry for him because he killed his dad and why would you feel sorry for someone who killed their own father.

Chelsie: I don't feel sorry for him because he took another person's life and I think that no one really deserves forgiveness when they do something like that. Especially to your own parent and then not do anything when someone else gets blamed for it.

Nicole A: I don't feel sorry for him because he killed his own father and I feel like that is worse than murdering anyone you don't know because killing your parents is basically killing them for taking care of you all your life.

Tanya: I don't feel sorry for McCarthy because he is wanting everything and is forcing his child and Alice to marry.

Oscar T: No because he has killed his own father and that is one of the most brutal, savage and dumbest things anyone could do.

4. Can you make any connections between this book and other things you have read or seen on TV?

This reminds me of Alex Rider because he finds out

Desmond: this reminds me of person because he finds out that he killed his father who killed his dad and he works for a secret service like the MI5

Desmond: this reminds me of a murderer

Nicole D: This reminds me of a spoonful of murder because the girl's parents died to a car crash and she had to find out who killed them in the car crash.

Alex: This reminds me of Percy Jackson: Lightning Thief because a Minotaur killed Sally Jackson, Percy Jackson's mother, after a car crash. In the woods.

Chelsie: This reminds me of a book that I have called Death In The Spotlight because there are two young girls who are detectives and they signed up or a theatre and a lot of gory things were happening, including murder.

Nicole A: This reminds of some movies I've watched and most of the time there is someone trying to figure out who the murderer is and the murderer always just wants to get revenge on some people for what they did to them.

Tanya: This book reminds me of another book i read in Dr called "I know what you did last wednesday" and it was about a group of people being killed one by one and they are figuring out who it was.

Liepa: this book reminds me of Alex Rider that we read in year 5 where he tries to find who killed his father.

Oscar T: This reminds me of a murder mystery game I play.
Not anything else.
